

SOUTH CAROLINA TRAFFIC FATALITY REPORT FOR 2011

Statistics through January 2011

(All data is preliminary)

2007 - 2011 Fatality Comparison through January

Preliminary statistics indicate fatalities for January 2011 are nearly 50% below the previous four-year average and nearly 40% below the January 2010 total.

Top Probable Causes

Less than 1/3 of fatalities have been fully investigated at this time so there is limited information regarding probable cause available to report.

Fatalities by Route Category

Fatalities on primary roads have decreased by nearly 60% compared to same period in 2010 (33). Over 40% of fatalities in January occurred on secondary roads.

Top Fatality Counties

Only three counties experienced more than two traffic fatalities in January.

Fatalities by Restraint Usage

This graphic does not include 9 people (pedestrians, motorcyclists and others) who were killed and did not have access to restraints.

Top Crash Events

Less than 1/3 of fatalities have been fully investigated at this time so there is limited information regarding crash type available to report.